

ENVIRONMENTAL AND PLANNING LAW COURSE

The University of Queensland offers a practical course on environmental law for busy professionals.

The high-quality lectures are recorded over 13 weeks and available to download at a time that suits you, making the course accessible anywhere.

This course is designed for people with no prior knowledge of law. It will particularly suit local government and state government staff as well as environmental consultants and others working in the development industry.

The course is taught by Dr Chris McGrath, an expert in the field, with over ten years experience as a practising environmental lawyer.

To view the course profile visit: <http://bit.ly/PXeCvf>

"The course provides a whole perspective on development and... would be very beneficial for many local government staff."

Kellianne Wynne, Town Planner
Whitsunday Regional Council

TOPICS

- Planning and development
- Mining, CSG and petroleum
- Vegetation management
- Nature conservation & protected areas
- Water management
- Fisheries
- Environmental harm and pollution
- Climate change
- Commonwealth environmental laws

HOW TO APPLY

This course may be taken as part of a post graduate degree or as a stand alone course. Students wishing to undertake a single subject option must complete a Non-Award Application found at: <http://bit.ly/PkOvdZ>

Course: Regulatory Frameworks for Environmental Management & Planning (ENVM7123)

Indicative Course Cost: $2500 (2012)

Location: St Lucia, Brisbane for internal study, and internet based for external study

Contact Hours: 2hr lecture, 1hr tutorial each week over 13 weeks.

Availability: Semester 1 (March to June)

School of Geography, Planning and Environmental Management

Phone: (07) 3365 6455

Email: gpem@uq.edu.au

CRICOS 00025B

gpem.uq.edu.au

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA